HILL IS CHOSEN CHAIRMAN

Following Acceptance of Resignation of Frank H. Hitchcock the Acting Chairman Is Unanimously Chosen to Succeed Him—Convention Will Meet in Chicago on Tuesday, June 13, to Nominate Presidential Ticket.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The grave condition of the Taft boom for re-nomination was apparent when the Republican national committee met. The situation is extraordinary. Coincident with the starting of the party machinery for the 1912 campaign the discovery is made that somebody has been tampering with the works and that it will no longer run smoothly.

Perhaps the most significant thing developed was the successful effort of the president's political managers to prevent any outbreak of the anti-Taft sentiment in open committee.

They could not stop the talk in hotel lobbies, but they worked hard to smother what is now known as the Roosevelt movement so far as the formal proceedings of the committee are concerned.

There is a Roosevelt movement for the reason that there is no other man yet in sight around which the anti-Taft sentiment can crystallize. The men who are talking about Roosevelt are in few cases his friends. Some of them are his personal enemies.

They are simply looking at the Republican situation in a cold blooded way. They do not believe that President Taft can be re-elected, but they do believe that there is a good fighting chance with somebody else. In such a situation they naturally begin to talk about the former president. In their view he is the only available man in sight, with the possible exception of Justice Charles E. Hughes of the supreme court.

Attitude Perfectly Selfish.

Their attitude, of course, is perfectly selfish, yet it is businesslike, from a political standpoint.

There will be men running for governorships, congressional seats and thousands of state and local offices all over the country. The Republican leaders want to save as many of their candidates as they can.

Many of them believe that Roosevelt can carry more states than Mr. Taft can. They do not claim that he can be elected necessarily, but they believe that he can carry to victory more local candidates than Mr. Taft can.

Ordinarily a national committee meeting, at the beginning of a campaign in which all party precedent demands a renomination of the president, would be the first step in a harmonious march to the goal. Instead of that the assembling of the committee in Washington has been the signal for letting loose a broadside of views to the effect that Mr. Taft cannot win next year.

The formal business of the committee was transacted with little friction and the presidency business will go to the convention, where it belongs, but the assembling of the committee will probably be remembered in history for the fact that it spread broadcast the news of a lack of confidence in the titular leader of the party.

Business Quickly Dissolved.

The committee's program agreed upon was carried out expeditiously in two short sessions, aggregating barely more than two hours.

After the selection of Chicago as the convention city and the call was issued for the assembling of delegates on Tuesday, June 18, to nominate candidates for president and vice president, Acting Chairman John F. Hill, former governor of Maine, was unanimously elected chairman of the committee after the acceptance of the resignation of Postmaster General Hitchcock, which went into effect on April 1, 1909. William Hayward of Nebraska was elected secretary to serve until the new national committee is organized in Chicago in June.

The committee adhered to the convention call of 1908 and the primary question, the sole disturbing topic before the committee, was left as it was four years ago. The champions of presidential preference primaries and statewide primaries for the selection of delegates to the convention in states whose primary laws are not operative were defeated. They were led by Senator Borah of Idaho, who contended himself with a minority report from the subcommittee on call, of which he was chairman, and with a brief speech to the committee.

The meeting was unique in two respects. There was a complete absence of bitterness and the proceedings were conducted with open doors. The wishes of the Taft committeemen prevailed throughout the meeting.

Mass Meeting in Support of Arbitration Treaties With France and England Breaks Up in Disorder After Nicholas Murray Butler Reads Resolution Urging the United States Senate to Ratify the Conventions.

New York, Dec. 13.—A riotous outbreak interrupted a large mass meeting held at Carnegie hall in support of the arbitration treaties which President Taft has proposed with England and France. Twenty-eight reserve policemen were hurried to the hall.

The outbreak occurred after Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, had read resolutions urging the senate to ratify the treaties. Alfonso G. Koebler of the German-American Citizens' league of the state of New York moved that the majority resolution of the United States senate committee on foreign relations be adopted as a substitute for the Butler resolution.

"This declaration is not a promoter of peace, but a breeder of war," he exclaimed, and the words were scarcely out of his mouth when men jumped to either side of the stage and raised their hands in an apparent signal, whereupon pandemonium was let loose in the upper galleries.

Cataclysms, yells, groans and hisses made it impossible for Chairman Joseph H. Choate to proceed with the meeting.

One man on the platform jumped and shouted "that packed gallery is composed of a lot of cowards."

At this the shouts became louder and megaphones were brought into use. Women in the boxes jumped to their feet, looking at their escorts, many evidently fearing the throwing of a bomb.

Announces Resolution Adopted.

In the midst of the noise Chairman Choate announced that the Butler resolution unanimously had been adopted. Persons on the main floor took this as a signal for a counter demonstration, jumped to their feet, shouted approval and waived their handkerchiefs and hats.

Andrew Carnegie was down on the program as the next speaker, but he sat in apparent amazement at the demonstration and in his place Rabbi Stephen Wise asked for a hearing. He was met with such cries as "Shut up" and "Throw him out" from the galleries. Above all he shouted:

"I warn you that no people in the world will feel so badly at the result of this meeting as the Irish leaders in the British parliament." His reference brought forth an even stronger combination of groans and howls.

Koebler, whose resolution had precipitated the outbreak, called in vain to the people in the galleries to show a spirit of fair play. Finally police reserves reached the gallery and ejected the leaders, but no arrests were made.

Chairman Choate in announcing ad-journalment of the meeting said:

"The action here has done more to cause the ratification of these peace treaties than all the peace speeches that could be made. As chairman I declare the meeting adjourned without the audience listening to the speeches of the other two gentlemen."

These gentlemen were Andrew Carnegie and Frederick R. Coudert, a well known lawyer.

Among the men on the platform were Chauncey M. Depew, Elbert H. Gary, Major General Frederick D. Grant, Right Rev. David H. Greer, J. Franklin Fort, John Hays Hammond, Rev. Dr. John H. Jowett, Henry W. Taft and Jacob H. Schiff.

MYSTERY REMAINS UNSOLVED

No Trace of Missing Jurymen in Hyde Trial.

Kansas City, Dec. 13.—Contrary to the plan announced the jury that is hearing the case of B. Clarke Hyde, accused of murdering Colonel Thomas H. Swope, was not dismissed, although Harry Waldron, the missing juror, had not been located. Judge Porterfield decided that he would hold the eleven remaining jurymen for another week in the hope that Waldron may be discovered and found competent to resume his duty.

Waldron has been missing since Monday morning, when he escaped from the jury's hotel, and but one clue to his whereabouts after he fled has been found. That came when Mrs. Reidy Werby, who lives a short distance from the Waldrons, said she saw the missing man in her pasture. He appeared demented, she said. An investigation of her story was started, although officers place little confidence in the clew.

Colonel Roosevelt arrived for a brief visit. He attended the meeting of the Travelers' club and will be present at the meeting of the board of overseers of Harvard college.

SHERWOOD PENSION
BILL PASSES HOUSEGrants Increase to Mexican and
Civil War Veterans.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The Sherwood service pension bill, which would add upward of $40,000,000 to the government's annual expenditures by granting increased pensions to Civil and Mexican war veterans on the basis of length of service, was passed by the house despite the determined opposition of many Democratic leaders. Secretary of the Interior Fisher estimated that the bill would add $75,000,000 to the pension roll if the 400,000 veterans eligible take advantage of the increase.

The Republicans who voted with the eighty-four Democrats against the bill were: Gardner, Gillette and McCall of Massachusetts; Hill of Connecticut; Kent of California; McCreary of Pennsylvania; Payne of New York; and Utter of Rhode Island. Speaker Clark voted with the majority of his party for the bill and Democratic Leader Underwood and Fitzgerald of New York, chairman of the appropriation committee, voted against it.

The bill now goes to the senate. Senate leaders, however, will proceed slowly in the consideration and many house Democrats voted for the measure in the belief that the senate would not pass it.

The Sulloway age pension bill, passed by the house last spring, failed of passage in the senate at that time. This Republican measure was offered unsuccessfully in the house as a substitute for the Sherwood bill.

Discusses Message and Tariff.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The general tariff situation, and particularly President Taft's forthcoming message to congress on the wool tariff schedules, were discussed at length by the cabinet. The message will be sent to congress next week and it was said that it will be brief.

BUILD WARSHIPS FAST HERE

United States Among Leaders in
Speed and Cheapness.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The United States is now among the leaders in rapid battleship construction, according to R. M. Watt, chief naval constructor, in his annual report. There was a time when it was said that American battleships were so long building that they were obsolete before they were commissioned. The change is attributed to the adoption of good management.

The chief constructor declared that "the total cost per ton of battleships recently built by contract for the United States is less than that of previous United States battleships and less than that of similar foreign vessels."

IS NOT POPULARNo Disposition to Press It at

PARCELS POST TO COME FIRST

One Element Wants It on Rural Routes Alone, the Other Would Make It Universal—Strong Lawyers From the Rocky Mountain States—Solitary Grandeur of Burton.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Dec. 13.—[Special.]—One cent postage is not going to prove a very popular postal suggestion, according to the way many men in congress view the matter. It is pointed out that the first class or two cent postage is now paid by the big business men, merchants and others, who use hundreds of thousands of letters in their correspondence every month; that it does not affect the poor people to any great extent, for they do not write many letters during the year. To them one cent postage will not be of any great benefit.

Congressman Weeks of Massachusetts, who was the former chairman of the house postoffice committee, does not believe that this is a good time to urge one cent postage, and it is not believed that it will be pressed very vigorously even if the postal revenues warrant a change.

Parcels Post Coming.

It seems almost certain that parcels post legislation will go through during the session. The postoffice officials want it on rural routes, but there will be an attempt to have it established on all mail routes. That will make the whole thing a difficult problem.

Postoffice officials think they can carry through rural route parcels post, but from every indication an amendment will be offered making the system universal. That will be a great innovation—in fact, a stupendous change all at once. We may look for an interesting contest on this subject.

Looking Far West.

In canvassing the names suggested for the supreme court the president finds that a great deal of good material can be found in the far west. He has already taken Van Devanter from Wyoming, and he looks with favor upon Sutherland of Utah. More than that, he finds in Borah of Idaho qualities which would make a good supreme court justice.

It is interesting to note that a number of very strong lawyers have been developed in the intermountain states. Aside from those mentioned, we can recall men like Stewart of Nevada, Teller, Wolcott and Patterson of Colorado, Carter of Montana, Clark of Wyoming, Heyburn of Idaho and McCumber of North Dakota, who have distinguished themselves in the senate.

Cut It Short.

Congressman Littlepage of West Virginia last session took nearly half a page of the Congressional Directory to tell about himself and his doings, beginning with the story that his father was killed in a duel and discussing the views entertained by the congressman at different periods of his career.

The new directory has a brief biography of a few lines which tells that Littlepage was once a state senator and was elected to congress, defeating Joe Gaines. Comments on the first biography were of a character to encourage a brief statement later.

Real Biographical Brevity.

For real biographical brevity let us point out that seven South Carolina congressmen are so modest that they occupy only a little more than a page in telling about themselves.

The two senators need nearly as much space to tell all they have done. Six members from Tennessee have biographies covering but one page.

The most modest man, however, is Robert Bruce Macon, who hails from Arkansas and takes four words more than one line to tell his story.

Burton Is Distinguished.

It was Sam McCall of Massachusetts who maintained that it was an evidence that he was not distinguished when more than one or two men supported any proposition he advanced. Senator Burton of Ohio remains in the distinguished class. When in the house and managing a river and harbor bill he always had a good round majority with him, but since he came to the senate he has always been a minority of one.

He stood alone on the rivers and harbors bill. He could not even agree with Cullom and Root in their amendments to the arbitration treaties and stood alone in his report on those measures. He is almost sure to stand alone on the monetary commission's report.

Notwithstanding his penchant for being in the minority and a minority of one at that, Burton is mentioned in connection with the nomination for the presidency. This is by Ohio men who do not want the presidency to get away from them.

"Until After the Holidays." That is what every man will say when asked about any kind of legislation. Neither house wants to do much until that time. There will be individuals who will work, many of them very hard, but the vast majority will take it easy until the first week in January.

Chicago, Dec. 13.—"Burglary is legitimate business compared with that of the loan sharks," said Judge Landis in the United States district court in citing J. Carr Carroll, an attorney, to appear before him next Monday and show cause why he should not be disbarred from practice in the federal courts.

Rudolph Kullas, a former bank clerk, who, with Raymond O'Neil, pleaded guilty to conspiracy in defrauding a local bank out of several hundred dollars, said he had paid Carroll usurious rates of interest on loans. The court continued the disposition of the conspiracy charge sixty days and released Kullas and O'Neil on their own recognizance.

DIRECTORS RATIFY
RAIL AGREEMENTNorthern Pacific and Northwestern Make Traffic Deal.

New York, Dec. 13.—Directors of the Northern Pacific and of the Chicago and Northwestern ratified in this city an agreement which will mean a great deal to both roads from a traffic standpoint.

The Northern Pacific is to run its fast coast train from Chicago over the Northwestern to St. Paul and then over its own line to Spokane to Tacoma. The time of this train will be seventy-two hours each way and it will meet the competition of the St. Paul, which began when the Puget Sound extension of that road was opened last spring for passenger traffic.

The main value of the agreement, however, it is believed, will be in the interchange of freight between the two roads on business which the Northern Pacific hauls from the coast and which is distributed in South Dakota, Minnesota and Wisconsin. The Northern Pacific makes a physical connection with the Chicago and Northwestern at Oakes, N. D. On the other hand traffic in the territory of the Northwestern bound to Rocky mountain or Puget Sound points will be handled via the Northern Pacific.

The effect of this arrangement will be to increase competition for the traffic now controlled by the St. Paul. The Northwestern is the closest rival of that road on local business throughout Wisconsin and South Dakota.

PLAN PARTY OF PROTEST

Proposed Organization to Be Com-

Chicago, Dec. 13.—Presaging the birth of a new political party, composed of business men and formed as a protest organization, the resolutions committee of the National Business congress considered such a resolution framed by A. Parker Nevins of New York, general counsel of the National Association of Manufacturers.

The federal congress probably will be asked by the business congress to regulate the sale and transportation of dynamite and other high explosives, as the result of a discussion of the McNamara case at Los Angeles. Such a motion, made by a business delegate asked that the illegal distribution of explosives be made a felony.

Live Stock Association Head Urges
Congressional Investigation.

Denver, Dec. 13.—Congressional investigation into every phase of the live stock and packing industries was the chief recommendation urged by President Murdo MacKenzie of the American National Live Stock association in his annual address before the fifteenth annual convention which began here.

"The margin between the price received by the producer for his live stock," said MacKenzie, "and what the consumer pays for his meat has widened in the last decade. The retailer is probably a victim of the high cost of living, but he is also one of its largest beneficiaries. The local combinations among retailers in different cities may have some bearing on the case."

Providence, R. The fight was before the Rhode Island Athletic club at Thornton and Charley White of New York refereed the bout.

Gibbons proved to be all that has been claimed for him. He toyed with the Pawtucket boy from the time that the first round started until he handed him his sleeping notion in the ninth.

REJECTS NAVAL PRIZE BILL

House of Lords Decides Proposition

London, Dec. 13.—The house of lords rejected the naval prize bill by a vote of 145 to 53.

The Earl of Selborne pointed out that the constitution of the proposed international prize court gave the British empire only the same representation as that accorded petty Central American republics. Furthermore, he said, the bill permitted an appeal from the British privy council to the prize court, but no corresponding appeal from the United States supreme court.

It was therefore possible, Lord Selborne argued, to get two sets of conflicting judgments.

Several hundred gallons of recently manufactured whisky were seized. A wagon load of sugar, unloading at the time of the raid, also was taken.

ALLEGES TRADE RESTRAINT

Bill in Equity in United States Circuit Court at Boston Charges Violation of Sherman Anti-Trust Statute, Prays for Dissolution of Combine and Requests an Injunction and the Appointment of Receivers.

Boston, Dec. 13.—A suit asking for the dissolution of the United Shoe Machinery company, a corporation of worldwide scope, was instituted by the federal government, which filed a bill in equity in the United States circuit court.

The bill is brought against the United Shoe Machinery corporation, the United Shoe Machinery company of New Jersey, eighteen subsidiary corporations and twenty-three individuals, to restrain the defendants from "maintaining and engaging in unlawful combinations, contracts and conspiracies in restraint of interstate and foreign trade and commerce in violation of the Sherman act in the manufacture, sale and lease of machines, mechanism, tools and devices used in the manufacture of boots and shoes."

The court is asked to order the dissolution of the defendant corporations into such parts that no one of them will constitute a monopoly or can become a monopoly of the shoe machinery business.

"If the court should be of the opinion," the bill continues, "that the public interest will be better served thereby the petitioner asks that receivers be appointed to take possession of all the property, assets, business and affairs of said defendants and wind up the same."

An injunction against the defendants is also requested. The petition charges, among other things, that the defendants have: By unlawful combinations, contracts and conspiracies; by exclusive use provisions which they have made a part of the lease and license agreements between them and the boot and shoe manufacturers for the use of their machines; by the acquisition and control of former competing shoe manufacturing concerns, and by other acts set forth in the petition, acquired and now control more than 98 per cent of the trade in the United States in shoe machinery.

The bill is brought by United States District Attorney French, acting under the direction of Attorney General Wickersham.

GORDON MAY ISSUE CALL

Special Session of Minnesota Legislature Probable.

St. Paul, Dec. 13.—Unless Governor Eberhart holds up at the capitol today it is very probable that Lieutenant Governor Gordon will assume the office and issue a proclamation calling the legislature to meet in special session at some date in the near future. It is expected that Attorney General Simpson will hand down an opinion that it is Mr. Gordon's privilege and duty to assume the office.

The calling of a special session by Mr. Gordon probably would be the beginning of turbulent times in the state. It would be the beginning of endless litigation and it would undoubtedly start a factional fight within the party the like of which has not been seen in the state, not even in the Dunn-Collins campaign.

That Attorney General Simpson will rule that a vacancy exists in the governor's office when the governor is out of the state is generally believed to be certain about the capitol, and that Mr. Gordon will issue the call is believed to be equally certain.

Delhi, India, Dec. 13.—King George V, and his consort, Queen Mary, were proclaimed emperor and empress of India.

The culminating act of the English monarch's accession to the throne of his vast Indian dominions took place amid a scene which, for richness and color and magnificence of decorations, probably never has been surpassed in modern times. The crowning was followed by an act of generosity on the king-emperor's part, the victory of 500,000 for popular education, the release of hundreds of political prisoners and delicate whose imprisonment was due to poverty and a half month's extra pay for every soldier in India.

Delhi, the seat of the ancient Mogul dynasty, will be the new capital of India. So pleased was King George with the reception that he has received here that he announced that the Indian capital could be removed here from Calcutta. News of the change in the capital was hailed with great joy here.

GALLERIES START TROUBLE

Mass Meeting in Support of Arbitration Treaties With France and England Breaks Up in Disorder After Nicholas Murray Butler Reads Resolution Urging the United States Senate to Ratify the Conventions.

New York, Dec. 13.—A riotous outbreak interrupted a large mass meeting held at Carnegie hall in support of the arbitration treaties which President Taft has proposed with England and France. Twenty-eight reserve policemen were hurried to the hall.

The outbreak occurred after Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, had read resolutions urging the senate to ratify the treaties. Alfonso G. Koebler of the German-American Citizens' league of the state of New York moved that the majority resolution of the United States senate committee on foreign relations be adopted as a substitute for the Butler resolution.

"This declaration is not a promoter of peace, but a breeder of war," he exclaimed, and the words were scarcely out of his mouth when men jumped to either side of the stage and raised their hands in an apparent signal, whereupon pandemonium was let loose in the upper galleries.

Catcalls, yells, groans and hisses made it impossible for Chairman Joseph H. Choate to proceed with the meeting.

One man on the platform jumped and shouted "that packed gallery is composed of a lot of cowards."

At this the shouts became louder and megaphones were brought into use. Women in the boxes jumped to their feet, looking at their escorts, many evidently fearing the throwing of a bomb.

Announces Resolution Adopted.

In the midst of the noise Chairman Choate announced that the Butler resolution unanimously had been adopted. Persons on the main floor took this as a signal for a counter demonstration, jumped to their feet, shouted approval and waived their handkerchiefs and hats.

Andrew Carnegie was down on the program as the next speaker, but he sat in apparent amazement at the demonstration and in his place Rabbi Stephen Wise asked for a hearing. He was met with such cries as "Shut up!" and "Throw him out!" from the galleries. Above all he shouted:

"I warn you that no people in the world will feel so badly at the result of this meeting as the Irish leaders in the British parliament." His reference brought forth an even stronger combination of groans and howls.

Koebler, whose resolution had precipitated the outbreak, called in vain to the people in the galleries to show a spirit of fair play. Finally police reserves reached the gallery and ejected the leaders, but no arrests were made.

Chairman Choate in announcing adjournment of the meeting said:

"The action here has done more to cause the ratification of these peace treaties than all the peace speeches that could be made. As chairman I declare the meeting adjourned without the audience listening to the speeches of the other two gentlemen."

These gentlemen were Andrew Carnegie and Frederick R. Condit, a well known lawyer.

Among the men on the platform were Chauncey M. Depew, Elbert H. Gary, Major General Frederick D. Grant, Right Rev. David H. Greer, J. Franklin Fort, John Hays Hammond, Rev. Dr. John H. Jowett, Henry W. Taft and Jacob H. Schiff.

No Trace of Missing Jurymen in Hyde Trial.

Kansas City, Dec. 13.—Contrary to the plan announced the jury that is hearing the case of B. Clarke Hyde, accused of murdering Colonel Thomas H. Swope, was not dismissed, although Harry Waldron, the missing juror, had not been located. Judge Porterfield decided that he would hold the eleven remaining jurymen for another week in the hope that Waldron may be discovered and found competent to resume his duty.

Waldron has been missing since Monday morning, when he escaped from the jury's hotel, and but one clue to his whereabouts after he fled has been found. That came when Mrs. Reidy Verby, who lives a short distance from the Waldrons, said she saw the missing man in her pasture. He appeared demented, she said. An investigation of her story was started, although officers place little confidence in the clue.

SHERWOOD PENSION
BILL PASSES HOUSEGrants Increase to Mexican and
Civil War Veterans.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The Sherwood service pension bill, which would add upward of $40,000,000 to the government's annual expenditures by granting increased pensions to Civil and Mexican war veterans on the basis of length of service, was passed by the house despite the determined opposition of many Democratic leaders.

Secretary of the Interior Fisher estimated that the bill would add $75,000,000 to the pension roll if the 400,000 veterans eligible take advantage of the increase.

The Republicans who voted with the eighty-four Democrats against the bill were: Gardner, Gillette and McCall of Massachusetts, Hill of Connecticut, Kent of California, McCreary of Pennsylvania, Payne of New York and Uter of Rhode Island. Speaker Clark voted with the majority of his party for the bill and Democratic Leader Underwood and Fitzgerald of New York, chairman of the appropriation committee, voted against it.

The bill now goes to the senate. Senate leaders, however, will proceed slowly in the consideration and many house Democrats voted for the measure in the belief that the senate would not pass it.

The Sulloway age pension bill passed by the house last spring, failed of passage in the senate at that time. This Republican measure was offered unsuccessfully in the house as a substitute for the Sherwood bill.

Discusses Message and Tariff.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The general tariff situation, and particularly President Taft's forthcoming message to congress on the wool tariff schedules, were discussed at length by the cabinet. The message will be sent to congress next week and it was said that it will be brief.

BUILD WARSHIPS FAST HERE

United States Among Leaders in
Speed and Cheapness.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The United States is now among the leaders in rapid battleship construction, according to R. M. Watt, chief naval constructor, in his annual report. There was a time when it was said that American battleships were so long building that they were obsolete before they were commissioned. The change is attributed to the adoption of good management.

The chief constructor declared that "the total cost per ton of battleships recently built by contract for the United States is less than that of previous United States battleships and less than that of similar foreign vessels."

IS NOT POPULARNo Disposition to Press It at This Session.

PARCELS POST TO COME FIRST

One Element Wants It on Rural Routes Alone, the Other Would Make It Universal—Strong Lawyers From the Rocky Mountain States—Solitary Grandeur of Burton.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Dec. 13.—[Special.]—One cent postage is not going to prove a very popular postal suggestion, according to the way many men in congress view the matter. It is pointed out that the first class or two cent postage is now paid by the big business men, merchants and others, who use hundreds of thousands of letters in their correspondence every month; that it does not affect the poor people to any great extent, for they do not write many letters during the year. To them one cent postage will not be of any great benefit.

Congressman Weeks of Massachusetts, who was the former chairman of the house postoffice committee, does not believe that this is a good time to urge one cent postage, and it is not believed that it will be pressed very vigorously even if the postal revenues warrant a change.

Parcels Post Coming.

It seems almost certain that parcels post legislation will go through during the session. The postoffice officials want it on rural routes, but there will be an attempt to have it established on all mail routes. That will make the whole thing a difficult problem.

Postoffice officials think they can carry through rural route parcels post, but from every indication an amendment will be offered making the system universal. That will be a great innovation—in fact, a stupendous change all at once. We may look for an interesting contest on this subject.

Looking Far West.

In canvassing the names suggested for the supreme court the president finds that a great deal of good material can be found in the far west. He has already taken Van Devanter from Wyoming, and he looks with favor upon Sutherland of Utah. More than that, he finds in Borah of Idaho qualities which would make a good supreme court justice.

It is interesting to note that a number of very strong lawyers have been developed in the intermountain states. Aside from those mentioned, we can recall men like Stewart of Nevada, Teller, Wolcott and Patterson of Colorado, Carter of Montana, Clark of Wyoming, Heyburn of Idaho and Mcumber of North Dakota, who have distinguished themselves in the senate.

Cut It Short.

Congressman Littlepage of West Virginia last session took nearly half a page of the Congressional Directory to tell about himself and his doings, beginning with the story that his father was killed in a duel and discussing the views entertained by the congressman at different periods of his career.

The new directory has a brief biography of a few lines which tells that Littlepage was once a state senator and was elected to congress, defeating Joe Gaines. Comments on the first biography were of a character to encourage a brief statement later.

Real Biographical Brevity.

For real biographical brevity let us point out that seven South Carolina congressmen are so modest that they occupy only a little more than a page in telling about themselves.

The two senators need nearly as much space to tell all they have done. Six members from Tennessee have biographies covering but one page. The most modest man, however, is Robert Bruce Macon, who hails from Arkansas and takes four words more than one line to tell his story.

Burton Is Distinguished.

It was Sam McCall of Massachusetts who maintained that it was an evidence that he was not distinguished when more than one or two men supported any proposition he advanced. Senator Burton of Ohio remains in the distinguished class. When in the house and managing a river and harbor bill he always had a good round majority with him, but since he came to the senate he has always been a minority of one.

He stood alone on the rivers and harbors bill. He could not even agree with Culom and Root in their amendments to the arbitration treaties and stood alone in his report on those measures. He is almost sure to stand alone on the monetary commission's report.

Notwithstanding his penchant for being in the minority and a minority of one at that, Burton is mentioned in connection with the nomination for the presidency. This is by Ohio men who do not want the presidency to get away from them.

"Until After the Holidays."

Everything is to go over "until after the holidays." That is what every man will say when asked about any kind of legislation. Neither house wants to do much until that time. There will be individuals who will work, many of them very hard, but the vast majority will take it easy until the first week in January.

SHARKS BELOW BURGLARS

Judge Landis Scores Man Who Accepted Usurious Interest.

Chicago, Dec. 13.—"Burglary is legitimate business compared with that of the loan sharks," said Judge Landis in the United States district court in citing J. Carr Carroll, an attorney, to appear before him next Monday and show cause why he should not be disbarred from practice in the federal courts.

Rudolph Kullas, a former bank clerk, who, with Raymond O'Neil, pleaded guilty to conspiracy in defrauding a local bank out of several hundred dollars, said he had paid Carroll usurious rates of interest on loans. The court continued the disposition of the conspiracy charge sixty days and released Kullas and O'Neil on their own recognizance.

DIRECTORS RATIFY
RAIL AGREEMENTNorthern Pacific and Northwestern Make Traffic Deal.

New York, Dec. 13.—Directors of the Northern Pacific and of the Chicago and Northwestern ratified in this city an agreement which will mean a great deal to both roads from a traffic standpoint.

The Northern Pacific is to run its fast coast train from Chicago over the Northwestern to St. Paul and then over its own line to Spokane to Tacoma. The time of this train will be seventy-two hours each way and it will meet the competition of the St. Paul, which began when the Puget Sound extension of that road was opened last spring for passenger traffic.

The main value of the agreement, however, it is believed, will be in the interchange of freight between the two roads on business which the Northern Pacific hauls from the coast and which is distributed in South Dakota, Minnesota and Wisconsin. The Northern Pacific makes a physical connection with the Chicago and Northwestern at Oakes, N. D. On the other hand traffic in the territory of the Northwestern bound to Rocky mountain or Puget Sound points will be handled via the Northern Pacific.

The effect of this arrangement will be to increase competition for the traffic now controlled by the St. Paul. The Northwestern is the closest rival of that road on local business throughout Wisconsin and South Dakota.

PLAN PARTY OF PROTEST

Proposed Organization to Be Composed of Business Men.

Chicago, Dec. 13.—Presaging the birth of a new political party, composed of business men and formed as a protest organization, the resolutions committee of the National Business congress considered such a resolution framed by A. Parker Nevins of New York, general counsel of the National Association of Manufacturers.

The federal congress probably will be asked by the business congress to regulate the sale and transportation of dynamite and other high explosives, as the result of a discussion of the McNamara case at Los Angeles. Such a motion, made by a business delegate asked that the illegal distribution of explosives be made a felony.

Live Stock Association Head Urges
Congressional Investigation.

Denver, Dec. 13.—Congressional investigation into every phase of the live stock and packing industries was the chief recommendation urged by President Murdo MacKenzie of the American National Live Stock association in his annual address before the fifteenth annual convention which began here.

"The margin between the price received by the producer for his live stock," said MacKenzie, "and what the consumer pays for his meat has widened in the last decade. The retailer is probably a victim of the high cost of living, but he is also one of its largest beneficiaries. The local combinations among retailers in different cities may have some bearing on the case."

St. Paul Fighter Secures Knockout in Ninth Round.

Providence, R. I., Dec. 13.—Mike Gibbons of St. Paul, the sensational welterweight who has flashed across the fighting firmament during the past few weeks, knocked out Frank Perron of Pawtucket in the ninth round of a bout that was scheduled to go fifteen rounds. The fight was before the Rhode Island Athletic club at Thornton and Charley White of New York refereed the bout.

REJECTS NAVAL PRIZE BILL

House of Lords Decides Proposition
Is Unfair to Britain.

London, Dec. 13.—The house of lords rejected the naval prize bill by a vote of 145 to 53.

The Earl of Selborne pointed out that the constitution of the proposed international prize court gave the British empire only the same representation as that accorded petty Central American republics. Furthermore, he said, the bill permitted an appeal from the British privy council to the prize court, but no corresponding appeal from the United States supreme court.

It was therefore possible, Lord Selborne argued, to get two sets of conflicting judgments.

Chicago, Dec. 13.—An illicit distillery in full operation was raided here by federal revenue officers.

Several hundred gallons of recently manufactured whisky were seized. A wagon load of sugar, unloading at the time of the raid, also was taken.

ALLEGES TRADE RESTRAINT

Bill in Equity in United States Circuit

Court at Boston Charges Violation of Sherman Anti-Trust Statute, Prays for Dissolution of Combine and Requests an Injunction and the Appointment of Receivers.

Boston, Dec. 13.—A suit asking for the dissolution of the United Shoe Machinery company, a corporation of worldwide scope, was instituted by the federal government, which filed a bill in equity in the United States circuit court.

The bill is brought against the United Shoe Machinery corporation, the United Shoe Machinery company of New Jersey, eighteen subsidiary corporations and twenty-three individuals, to restrain the defendants from "maintaining and engaging in unlawful combinations, contracts and conspiracies in restraint of interstate and foreign trade and commerce in violation of the Sherman act in the manufacture, sale and lease of machines, mechanism, tools and devices used in the manufacture of boots and shoes."

The court is asked to order the dissolution of the defendant corporations into such parts that no one of them will constitute a monopoly or can become a monopoly of the shoe machinery business.

"If the court should be of the opinion," the bill continues, "that the public interest will be better served thereby the petitioner asks that receivers be appointed to take possession of all the property, assets, business and affairs of said defendants and wind up the same."

An injunction against the defendants is also requested. The petition charges, among other things, that the defendants have: By unlawful combinations, contracts and conspiracies; by exclusive use provisions which they have made a part of the lease and license agreements between them and the boot and shoe manufacturers for the use of their machines; by the acquisition and control of former competing shoe manufacturing concerns, and by other acts set forth in the petition, acquired and now control more than 98 per cent of the trade in the United States in shoe machinery.

The bill is brought by United States District Attorney French, acting under the direction of Attorney General Wickersham.

GORDON MAY ISSUE CALL

Special Session of Minnesota Legislature Probable.

St. Paul, Dec. 13.—Unless Governor Eberhart bobs up at the capitol today it is very probable that Lieutenant Governor Gordon will assume the office and issue a proclamation calling the legislature to meet in special session at some date in the near future. It is expected that Attorney General Simpson will hand down an opinion that it is Mr. Gordon's privilege and duty to assume the office.

The calling of a special session by Mr. Gordon probably would be the beginning of turbulent times in the state. It would be the beginning of endless litigation and it would undoubtedly start a factional fight within the party the like of which has not been seen in the state, not even in the Dunn-Collins campaign.

That Attorney General Simpson will rule that a vacancy exists in the governor's office when the governor is out of the state is generally believed to be certain about the capitol, and that Mr. Gordon will issue the call is believed to be equally certain.

NAMES DELHI NEW CAPITAL

King George Pleased With Coronation
Reception in India.

Delhi, India, Dec. 13.—King George V and his consort, Queen Mary, were proclaimed emperor and empress of India.

The culminating act of the English monarch's accession to the throne of his vast Indian dominions took place amid a scene which, for richness and color and magnificence of decorations, probably never has been surpassed in modern times. The crowning was followed by an act of generosity on the king-emperor's part, the victory proclamation that George had given $1,500,000 for popular education, the release of hundreds of political prisoners and debtors whose imprisonment was due to poverty and a half month's extra pay for every soldier in India.

Delhi, the seat of the ancient Mogul dynasty, will be the new capital of India. So pleased was King George with the reception that he has received here that he announced that the Indian capital could be removed here from Calcutta. News of the change in the capital was hailed with great joy here.

WILL GORDON CALL EXTRA SESSION?

Special to The Dispatch:—

St. Paul, Dec. 13—Lieutenant Gov- ernor Gordon has not yet called an extra session of the legislature. At- torney General Simpson gave his opin- ion late this afternoon in response to Lieutenant Governor's request for advice as to whether he became gov- ernor in the absence from the state of Governor Eberhart. Mr. Simpson put the question up to Gordon again. He held that the absence from the state creates a vacancy, but whether the governor's absence is long enough in duration to justify Mr. Gordon in slipping into the chair and calling the legislature together, Mr. Simpson leaves to the lieutenant gov- ernor to decide. In an interview at Pittsburg, Governor Eberhart de- clares no occasion exists for the ex- tra session.

Commercial Club Meeting

At last night's meeting of the Com- mercial club the question of a pro- duce warehouse was discussed. P. B. Nettleton was the chairman of this committee. He favored the organiz- ation of a company to carry the pro- ject through. Others thought it would be more practical to effect an organization which would purchase the right kind of potatoes and sell them to the farmers for seed purposes. A committee consisting of W. H. Cleary, R. R. Wise, Dr. J. L. Camp and W. D. McKay was appointed to serve on this matter and to report at the next meeting. Engineer Glass, Attorney Russell and W. D. McKay spoke about the bridge in Northeast Brainerd and said it could not be built under the Elwell provisions. An informal discussion resulted, but no formal action was taken. Resi- dents of Northeast Brainerd are agi- tating the question of seeing what can be done to rebuild the bridge, for it is a matter of prime necessity to have communication with the west bank of the river and the country tributary to it.

BURNS DETECTIVE WAS IN BRAINERD

Detective of Celebrated Bureau Which Conducted McNamara Investiga- tion Was at Dumas Trial

HE WAS LOOKING FOR BRANDT

Burns' Man Said Northern Minnesota Was Playground of Dynamiting and Incendiary Gang

One of the significant things at the late Dumas trial in Brainerd was the presence there in the closing days of a plain clothes man, a detective from the Burns agency of Cleveland, Ohio, which is the same detective agency which produced such wonderful and far reaching results in the recent Mc- Namara case in Los Angeles, Cal.

It appears that one of the state's witnesses, A. H. Brandt, paroled from the state penitentiary to testify at Brainerd, had been given a ticket to Brainerd and was to appear in Brainerd to testify in the Dumas case. Mr. Brandt, alias Duval, alias Fisher, did not show up and Sheriff Hazen, of Beltrami county, searched for the missing Brandt at St. Paul and other places, but could not locate him and returned to Brainerd and so reported to the prosecution.

The Burns detective visited the sa- loons and second hand stores in the city of Brainerd in a vain search for Brandt. The detective said the St. Paul police had drawn such a tight net works about St. Paul that Brandt could not slip through without their notice. Brandt had the Brainerd tick- et and a dollar in money and on Tues- day morning at two o'clock, Decem- ber 5, Mr. Brandt did the disappearing act.

The detective, who said it was the little things which tell in the chase of a man, said Brandt had never used this ticket to Brainerd and that there was no record of this ticket having ever been used. Instead of coming to Brainerd, later developments as mentioned in St. Paul papers, show that Brandt gave the all important ticket to a bartender friend of his who went through to Hibbing.

Brandt had a celebration and hol- iday in St. Paul and raised some money, it is said, by forging a check. He never left the place, it is pre- sumed, and is probably sticking around St. Paul at the present time.

In an interview in the hotel cor- ridor of the Ramsford, the Burns man said that a vast dynamiting, yegg and incendiary gang was doing a whole- sale crime business in northern Min- nesota and that this crime trust had regular branches in all cities. He claimed that detectives were working to pick up the tangled skeins which would land several carloads of safe blowers, yegg men, arson artists and dynamiters in the toils of the law and that some great revelations were due in a short time.

It was all very mysterious and when he was asked to give out some real tangible information about anything in particular he assumed his usual taciturnity and said everything would be revealed in due time.

WENT FOR A PURPOSE

Construction of the So-Called Moor- head-Duluth Elwell State Trunk Road is Discussed

St. Cloud Times: "The Aitkin and Crow Wing county delegation came to St. Cloud for a purpose. They are all busy men and have no time for idle dreams. The principal object of their sojourn in St. Cloud was the construc- tion of the so-called Moorhead-Duluth Elwell State Trunk road. The route decided upon by the state highway commission embodied the construction of some nineteen miles between Ait- kin and Brainerd and the cost had been estimated all the way from $15,- 000 to $175,000. Blue prints had been prepared and everything was practi- cally in readiness to take up the work. But the up state delegation referred to concluded that there was no ac- cession for nineteen miles of new state road, so they picked out a route over which two-thirds had already been constructed—as good road as one could wish for, and the balance will be built. Of course there will have to be some new work put in in places along the old road, but the saving to the state of Minnesota will aggre- gate $20,000 to $25,000. This will sure help some, and shows what a bunch of practical men can accom- plish with practical ideas. And the best of it all is that their suggestions and recommendations will be adopted. Tally one for "results" of the gather- ing, any way."

"How do you like my new Fall Suit?"

"It's made-to-order—and fits like a glove. Without a doubt it's the best value for the money I ever had. Where did I have it made? Right in Brainerd by L. S. Zakariasen, The Tailor. He guaranteed perfect satisfaction—and I certainly got it—without any trouble whatever. Really, I never knew that such FINE clothes could be made here. And the most remarkable thing about it all, is the price I paid. Why, do you know, that this suit didn't cost me any more than I've often paid in the past for ready-made clothes."

You too can have your new Winter clothes made-to-order right here in Brainerd and you can have your choice of the same identi- cal styles and fabrics now being offered by the best Tailors in the cities.

Be sure to come to our store and see our new line of suitings. There are several hundred of the latest fabrics to choose from—a larger array by far than any other firm, can show you. ### ESDON ETCHINGS

Mrs. M. J. Garrison passed to the Great Beyond Monday the 4th of December at the ripe old age of 84 years, three months and 17 days, at St. Joseph's hospital. She was well known throughout the county. Her name was Mary J. Allistine and she was married to O. E. Garrison in 1844. They moved to Excelsior, Minn., in 1853 and to Crow Wing county in 1883. She was perfectly honest and upright and a devoted friend. She leaves an adopted son, L. E. Garrison, and no blood relation as far as known. She was buried Dec. 6th at the Mille Lac cemetery besides her husband, O. E. Garrison. Sam Hammett came from Crookston Nov. 29th, where he has been at work this summer and spent Thanksgiving with his mother and brothers.

Wednesday, Dec. 6th, Hazel Mag- han and Samuel Lougee Hammett were married in Brainerd, and left on the midnight train for his claim at Rush Lake, Sask., Canada. The young people gave their elders a great surprise, but their best wishes go with them for their future happiness and success.

Dave Hammett is home from Ft. Francis, Canada, for a visit before leaving for St. Paul for the winter.

The corn shredder is getting near- er and we are all anxiously waiting for it. The boys seem to be doing good work.

Miss Long, our teacher, is busy on her program for Xmas. There will be a tree and a general good time.

We understand there will be no Christmas entertainment at the white school house. Esdon tried doing that once but won't again. Too much disappointment for the little folks.

DEAD MAN FOUND IN N. E. BRAINERD

Special by Phone to Dispatch:
A river man, McCarthy, working for the Northern Boom Co., is said to have found a dead man at 2:15
this afternoon near the old mill site and telephoned the information to the city clerk. His identity so far has not been established.

WILL GORDON CALL EXTRA SESSION?

Special to The Dispatch:—
St. Paul, Dec. 13—Lieutenant Governor Gordon has not yet called an extra session of the legislature. Attorney General Simpson gave his opinion late this afternoon in response to Lieutenant Governor's request for advice as to whether he became governor in the absence from the state of Governor Eberhart. Mr. Simpson put the question up to Gordon again.
He held that the absence from the state creates a vacancy, but whether the governor's absence is long enough in duration to justify Mr.
Gordon in slipping into the chair and calling the legislature together, Mr.
Simpson leaves to the lieutenant governor to decide. In an interview at Pittsburg, Governor Eberhart declares no occasion exists for the extra session.

Commercial Club Meeting

At last night's meeting of the Commercial club the question of a produce warehouse was discussed. P. B.
Nettleton was the chairman of this committee. He favored the organization of a company to carry the project through. Others thought it would be more practical to effect an organization which would purchase the right kind of potatoes and sell them to the farmers for seed purposes.
A committee consisting of W. H.
Cleary, R. R. Wise, Dr. J. L. Camp and W. D. McKay was appointed to serve on this matter and to report at the next meeting. Engineer Glass, Attorney Russell and W. D. McKay spoke about the bridge in Northeast BRAINERD and said it could not be built under the Elwell provisions.
An informal discussion resulted, but no formal action was taken. Residents of Northeast BRAINERD are agitating the question of seeing what can be done to rebuild the bridge, for it is a matter of prime necessity to have communication with the west bank of the river and the country tributary to it.

BURNS DETECTIVE WAS IN BRAINERD

Detective of Celebrated Bureau Which Conducted McNamara Investigation Was at Dumas Trial

HE WAS LOOKING FOR BRANDT

Burns' Man Said Northern Minnesota
Was Playground of Dynamiting and Incendiary Gang

One of the significant things at the late Dumas trial in Brainerd was the presence there in the closing days of a plain clothes man, a detective from the Burns agency of Cleveland, Ohio, which is the same detective agency which produced such wonderful and far reaching results in the recent Mc-Namara case in Los Angeles, Cal.

It appears that one of the state's witnesses, A. H. Brandt, paroled from the state penitentiary to testify at Brainerd, had been given a ticket to Brainerd and was to appear in Brainerd to testify in the Dumas case. Mr.
Brandt, alias Duval, alias Fisher, did not show up and Sheriff Hazen, of Beltrami county, searched for the missing Brandt at St. Paul and other places, but could not locate him and returned to Brainerd and so reported to the prosecution.

The Burns detective visited the saloons and second hand stores in the city of Brainerd in a vain search for Brandt. The detective said the St.
Paul police had drawn such a tight net works about St. Paul that Brandt could not slip through without their notice. Brandt had the Brainerd ticket and a dollar in money and on Tuesday morning at two o'clock, December 5, Mr. Brandt did the disappearing act.

The detective, who said it was the little things which tell in the chase of a man, said Brandt had never used this ticket to Brainerd and that there was no record of this ticket having ever been used. Instead of coming to Brainerd, later developments as mentioned in St. Paul papers, show that Brandt gave the all important ticket to a bartender friend of his who went through to Hibbing.

Brandt had a celebration and holiday in St. Paul and raised some money, it is said, by forging a check.
He never left the place, it is presumed, and is probably sticking around St. Paul at the present time.

In an interview in the hotel corridor of the Ramsford, the Burns man said that a vast dynamiting, yegg and incendiary gang was doing a wholesale crime business in northern Minnesota and that this crime trust had regular branches in all cities. He claimed that detectives were working to pick up the tangled skeins which would land several carloads of safe blowers, yegg men, arson artists and dynamiters in the toils of the law and that some great revelations were due in a short time.

It was all very mysterious and when he was asked to give out some real tangible information about anything in particular he assumed his usual taciturnity and said everything would be revealed in due time.

WENT FOR A PURPOSE

Construction of the So-Called Moorhead-Duluth Elwell State Trunk Road is Discussed

St. Cloud Times: “The Aitkin and Crow Wing county delegation came to St. Cloud for a purpose. They are all busy men and have no time for idle dreams. The principal object of their sojourn in St. Cloud was the construction of the so-called Moorhead-Duluth Elwell State Trunk road. The route decided upon by the state highway commission embodied the construction of some nineteen miles between Ait-kin and Brainerd and the cost had been estimated all the way from $45,- 000 to 175,000. Blue prints had been prepared and everything was practically in readiness to take up the work.
But the up state delegation referred to concluded that there was no accession for nineteen miles of new state road, so they picked out a route over which two-thirds had already been constructed—as good road as one could wish for, and the balance will be built. Of course there will have to be some new work put in in places along the old road, but the saving to the state of Minnesota will aggregate $20,000 to $25,000. This will sure help some, and shows what a bunch of practical men can accomplish with practical ideas. And the best of it all is that their suggestions and recommendations will be adopted.
Tally one for “results” of the gathering, any way.”

PASTOR RUSSELL AROUND THE WORLD

Chairman of Investigating Committee of Seven.

Visit to Heathen Lands Is Not in the Hope of Converting Them—Heathens Have More Than Doubled In Last Century—Kingdom Must Be Established Before Every Knee Will Bow.

(PASTOR RUSSELL)

Brooklyn, December 3. — The public was not made aware of Pastor Russell's presence in our city today. No notices were given out because the Academy of Music was not obtainable, and the Tabernacle would not accommodate the crowds. As it was, however, the Tabernacle was crowded. The afternoon text was, "The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved."—Jeremiah viii, 20.

The Pastor seemed specially to enjoy the semi-privacy of this meeting with the Tabernacle congregation. As is generally known he is about to start on a tour of the world in company with a committee of six gentlemen of affairs, of which he is the chosen Chairman. The committee was appointed some months ago by the International Bible Students Association to visit heathen lands and investigate conditions there and report to the Association and to the public their findings along the following lines:

The Committee's Instructions.
(1) Are the foreign Missions being conducted along Christian business lines?

(2) To what extent are the methods used successful in reaching the heathen peoples and in bringing them to Christianity?

(3) What are the teachings, what the inducements to accept Christianity and how enduring are the results?

(4) What is the attitude of Heathendom toward the Missionaries and toward Christianity and what are the prospects for Foreign Missions becoming self-sustaining?

(5) What, if any, changes should be made in teaching or in financial administration to make the foreign missionary work more successful in the future?

(6) What hope is there for the conversion of the world in this generation as proposed by the Layman's Missionary Movement with its thirty-million-dollar endowment?

(7) To what extent do the monies donated benefit the heathen and could any improvement along this line be suggested?

Only the Church Harvested.

The Pastor reminded his hearers that he believes the Bible to teach that we are now in the Harvest time of this Age. Consequently none should misunderstand the visit to heathen lands to imply any expectation on his part that the heathen must be converted before this Age will end. That such would be a human impossibility is shown by the government statistics—the numbers of heathen having doubled during the past century.

What he does expect is that as there are a few of God's "very elect" in all denominations of Christendom now to be garnered, so also there are a few saintly ones amongst the heathen who have accepted Christ—including some of the missionaries. The Harvest must cover as wide an area as did the sowing of the Gospel seed.

The Foolish Virgins Not Lost.

The text points out a lesson. Not all who have professed to be followers of Christ will be amongst the blessed ones of the Harvest and be transported by the First Resurrection to glory, honor and immortality.

Among the Redeemer's parables, the Pastor said, is one which pictures the consecrated saints of God in this harvest time as virgins. But some were wise and some foolish—all virgins, however. The masses of mankind—yea, the masses of Christendom, are omitted from this parabolic picture. Only the virgin class is dealt with at all, and it is divided into two parts. Only the wise, the faithful, "more than conquerors" will have the honor of entering into the wedding with the Bridegroom and becoming "the Bride, the Lamb's wife." Then the door will be shut. No more will ever enter that door. No more will ever be added to the Bride company—the number of the "Elect" will have been completed.

Later on the foolish virgins pass through tribulation and obtain the oil and the light which they should have had before. But it will then be too late to be of the Bride company. They will knock saying, "Lord, Lord open unto us;" but the Bridegroom will declare, "I do not recognize you as members of My Bride."

The Scriptures show us elsewhere that these "foolish virgins," passing through a great time of tribulation, will be called to the marriage supper of the Lamb and be presented before the great King as the virgins, the Bride's companions and subordinate helpers.—Psalm xiv, 13-15.

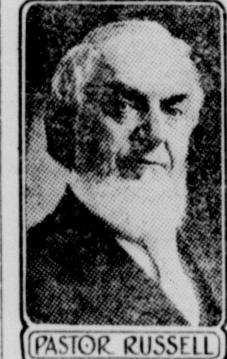

One lesson, said the Pastor, is that it is not sufficient that we say, "Lord, Lord"—that we publicly proclaim ourselves Christians—nor is it sufficient that we be engaged in good works. Obedience to the Word is necessary.

To what gulfs a single deviation from the track of human duties leads!—Byron.

THE WRATH OF GOD ALREADY UPON US

No Death Curse Resting Upon the Angels.

A New Interpretation Given to an Old Text Makes It Fit Well to Prevailing Conditions—Nevertheless, Says Pastor Russell, There Is "Wrath to Come," to Which We Should Take Heed.

(PASTOR RUSSELL)

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 10.—Pastor Russell preached twice here today to large audiences. We report his discourse from the text, "The wrath of God is revealed against all unrighteousness of men." (Romans i, 18). The unreasonable teachings of our creeds have biased our minds to such a degree that the expression, "wrath to come," carries with it to our deluded brains pictures such as Dante, Thomas a Kempis and others have conjured for our minds, and which became impressed upon us in infancy.

The Wrath Now Revealed.

The Bible tells what the wrath to come is. We will look at that in due time, but now let us look at our text, and at the wrath which it says is already revealed. If it is revealed, where is it and what is it?

We answer that the expression of God's wrath against sin is seen in the sentence of death against the sinner—"Dying, thou shalt die." This the Scriptures call the "curse." It has rested upon our race for six thousand years. It is visible to all, attested by the reign of sin and death. Do we not see depravity all about us, and do we not realize some of it in our own selves? Do we realize that our race is dying, mentally, morally and physically?

Do we realize that all this is the penalty of sin? Every piece of crepe, every funeral procession, every casket, every cemetery, every undertaker's sign, every physician's sign, all of our weaknesses testify that God's wrath is upon our race. Moreover, the earthquakes and pestilences, the droughts and floods, tell us that our earth is not in a perfect condition, suitable for perfect man. It testifies that there is a reason why our race is treated by our Creator as a race of convicts.

No Death Curse In Heaven.

Does anyone think that the wrath of God is thus revealed in heaven—that amongst the holy angels is imperfection, sin and death? Does anyone suppose that doctors or undertakers or cemeteries are there? Why not? The answer is simple. The wrath of God is not upon them, because they are not sinners—they have continued to abide in obedience to Him.

"Who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come," were John the Baptist's words to some of the Holy men (Pharisees) of his day. To what wrath did John refer? We answer that he was a Prophet, and was thus foretelling the time of trouble with which the Jewish Age ended, in A. D. 70. There is nothing whatever to indicate that he had made any reference to a wrath of God in the future, that would come upon his hearers after they were dead. On the contrary, the Scriptures everywhere teach that the dead are unconscious, that they can neither enjoy nor suffer anything, that they must wait for resurrection in the resurrection.

The Wrath to Come.

Our Lord also corroborated the words of John the Baptist and declared that the wrath of God upon that nation was nigh; His words were, "These be the days of vengeance upon this people, that all things written in the Law and the Prophets concerning them should be fulfilled" (Luke xxi, 20-22); also the Apostle Paul (I Thessalonians ii, 16). Some of the things declared by the Lord in the Law and the Prophets were fulfilled in the destruction of Jerusalem, and in the trouble which came upon the Jews at that time. But other things written have had a grander fulfillment for now eighteen hundred years; and not one jot or tittle can fail until all be fulfilled.

However, St. Paul (Ephesians v, 6; Colossians iii, 6) mentions a coming time of Divine wrath; and Jesus urged His followers, saying, "Watch ye, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all those things coming upon the world, and to stand before the Son of Man." This intimates that the wrath here mentioned is to be world-wide, and in the end of this Age, even as the wrath upon the Jewish nation was nation-wide, in the end of their Age.

God's People Should Keep Hands Off.

This special wrath to be manifest in "a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation." (Daniel xii, 1). It will be specially upon those who fail to live up to the light and privilege which they enjoy. It will be upon all the selfish or covetous, and upon the unclean and upon those who unduly prize earthly things, wealth, honor, etc. God's people are warned, "Be ye not partakers with them," otherwise you will have no part or lot in the glorious Kingdom to which you have been called of God, as joint heirs with Jesus Christ, conditional upon your suffering with Him that you may also reign with Him.

PASTOR RUSSELL AROUND THE WORLD

Chairman of Investigating Committee of Seven.

Visit to Heathen Lands Is Not in the Hope of Converting Them—Heathens Have More Than Doubled in Last Century—Kingdom Must Be Established Before Every Knee Will Bow.

(PASTOR RUSSELL)

Brooklyn, Dec. 3.—The public was not made aware of Pastor Russell's presence in our city today. No notices were given out because the Academy of Music was not obtainable, and the Tabernacle would not accommodate the crowds. As it was, however, the Tabernacle was crowded. The afternoon text was, "The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved."—Jeremiah viii, 20.

The Pastor seemed specially to enjoy the semi-privacy of this meeting with a committee of six gentlemen of affairs, of which he is the chosen Chairman. The committee were appointed some months ago by the International Bible Students Association to visit heathen lands and investigate conditions there and report to the Association and to the public their findings along the following lines:

The Committee's Instructions.
(1) Are the foreign Missions being conducted along Christian business lines?

(2) To what extent are the methods used successful in reaching the heathen peoples and in bringing them to Christianity?

(3) What are the teachings, what the inducements to accept Christianity and how enduring are the results?

(4) What is the attitude of Heathendom toward the Missionaries and toward Christianity and what are the prospects for Foreign Missions becoming self-sustaining?

(5) What, if any, changes should be made in teaching or in financial administration to make the foreign missionary work more successful in the future?

(6) What hope is there for the conversion of the world in this generation as proposed by the Layman's Missionary Movement with its thirty-million-dollar endowment?

(7) To what extent do the monies donated benefit the heathen and could any improvement along this line be suggested?

Only the Church Harvested.

The Pastor reminded his hearers that he believes the Bible to teach that we are now in the Harvest time of this Age. Consequently none should misunderstand the visit to heathen lands to imply any expectation on his part that the heathen must be converted before this Age will end. That such would be a human impossibility is shown by the government statistics—the numbers of heathen having doubled during the past century.

What he does expect is that as there are a few of God's "very elect" in all denominations of Christendom now to be garnered, so also there are a few saintly ones amongst the heathen who have accepted Christ—including some of the missionaries. The Harvest must cover as wide an area as did the sowing of the Gospel seed.

The Foolish Virgins Not Lost.

The text points out a lesson. Not all who have professed to be followers of Christ will be amongst the blessed ones of the Harvest and be transported by the First Resurrection to glory, honor and immortality.

Among the Redeemer's parables, the Pastor said, is one which pictures the consecrated saints of God in this harvest time as virgins. But some were wise and some foolish—all virgins, however. The masses of mankind—yea, the masses of Christendom, are omitted from this parabolic picture. Only the virgin class is dealt with at all, and it is divided into two parts. Only the wise, the faithful, "more than conquerors," will have the honor of entering into the wedding with the Bridegroom and becoming "the Bride, the Lamb's wife." Then the door will be shut. No more will ever enter that door. No more will ever be added to the Bride company—the number of the "Elect" will have been completed.

Later on the foolish virgins pass through tribulation and obtain the oil and the light which they should have had before. But it will then be too late to be of the Bride company. They will knock saying, "Lord, Lord open unto us," but the Bridegroom will declare, "I do not recognize you as members of My Bride."

The Scriptures show us elsewhere that these "foolish virgins," passing through a great time of tribulation, will be called to the marriage supper of the Lamb and be presented before the great King as the virgins, the Bride's companions and subordinate helpers.—Psalm xlv, 13-15.

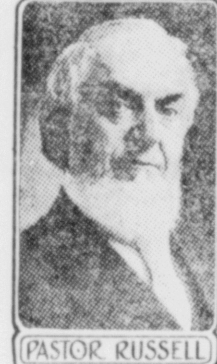

One lesson, said the Pastor, is that it is not sufficient that we say, "Lord, Lord"—that we publicly proclaim ourselves Christians—nor is it sufficient that we be engaged in good works. Obedience to the Word is necessary.

To what profits a single deviation from the track of human duties leads?—Byron.

THE WRATH OF GOD ALREADY UPON US

No Death Curse Resting Upon the Angels.

A New Interpretation Given to an Old Text Makes It Fit Well to Prevailing Conditions—Nevertheless, Says Pastor Russell, There Is "Wrath to Come," to Which We Should Take Heed.

(PASTOR RUSSELL)

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 10.—Pastor Russell preached twice here today to large audiences. We report his discourse from the text, "The wrath of God is revealed against a 11 unrighteousness of men." (Romans i, 18.) The unreasonable teachings of our creeds have biased our minds to such a degree that the expression, "wrath to come," carries with it to our deluded brains pictures such as Dante, Thomas a Kempis and others have conjured for our minds, and which became impressed upon us in infancy.

The Wrath Now Revealed.
The Bible tells what the wrath to come is. We will look at that in due time, but now let us look at our text, and at the wrath which it says is already revealed. If it is revealed, where is it and what is it?

We answer that the expression of God's wrath against sin is seen in the sentence of death against the sinner—"Dying, thou shalt die." This the Scriptures call the "curse." It has rested upon our race for six thousand years. It is visible to all, attested by the reign of sin and death. Moreover, the earth quakes and pestilences, the droughts and floods, tell that our earth is not in a perfect condition, suitable for perfect man. It testifies that there is a reason why our race is treated by our Creator as a race of convicts.

Does anyone think that the wrath of God is thus revealed in heaven—that amongst the holy angels is imperfection, sin and death? Does anyone suppose that doctors or undertakers or cemeteries are there? Why not? The answer is simple. The wrath of God is not upon them, because they are not sinners—they have continued to abide in obedience to Him.

"Who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come," were John the Baptist's words to some of the Pharisees of his day. To what wrath did John refer? We answer that he was a Prophet, and was thus foretelling the time of trouble with which the Jewish Age ended, in A. D. 70. There is nothing whatever to indicate that he had made any reference to a wrath of God in the future, that would come upon his hearers after they were dead. On the contrary, the Scriptures everywhere teach that the dead are unconscious, that they can neither enjoy nor suffer anything, that they must wait for resurrection in the resurrection.

The Wrath to Come.

Our Lord also corroborated the words of John the Baptist and declared that the wrath of God upon that nation was nigh; His words were, "These be the days of vengeance upon this people, that all things written in the Law and the Prophets concerning them should be fulfilled" (Luke xii, 20-22); also the Apostle Paul (1 Thessalonians ii, 16). Some of the things declared by the Lord in the Law and the Prophets were fulfilled in the destruction of Jerusalem, and in the trouble which came upon the Jews at that time. But other things written have had a grander fulfillment for now eight hundred years; and not one jot or tittle can fail until all be fulfilled.

However, St. Paul (Ephesians v, 6; Colossians iii, 6) mentions a coming time of Divine wrath; and Jesus urged His followers, saying, "Watch ye, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all those things coming upon the world, and to stand before the Son of Man." This intimates that the wrath here mentioned is to be world-wide, and in the end of this Age, even as the wrath upon the Jewish nation was nation-wide, in the end of their Age.

God's People Should Keep Hands Off.

This special wrath will be manifest in "a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation." (Daniel xii, 1.) It will be specially upon those who fail to live up to the light and privilege which they enjoy. It will be upon all the selfish and covetous, and upon the unclean and upon those who unduly prize earthly things, wealth, honor, etc. God's people are warned, "Ye be not partners with them," otherwise you will have no part or lot in the glorious Kingdom to which you have been called of God, as joint heirs with Jesus Christ, conditional upon your suffering with Him that you may also reign with Him.
